ARTIST BIO

Composer, producer and multi-instrumentalist Gentle Thunder has enchanted audiences worldwide with her distinctive sound and heart-filled presence. Following her two successful solo albums, Awakening Remembrance and Winds of the Heart (both charted in the top 100 NAR), Gentle Thunder teams up with 2005 GRAMMY® finalists, pan-global percussionist Will Clipman and multi-instrumentalist AmoChip Dabney to record her third release Beyond Words.

Will and Amo are well known for their versatility and have been a part of the R. Carlos Nakai Quartet for the past ten years. Gentle Thunder opened in concert for the R. Carlos Nakai Quartet awakening a simpatico with Will & Amo that was outrageous. The potent and passionate interplay among these three artists feels as natural as the in-breath out-breath of all life. Their exquisite alchemy and eclectic blend of world instruments creates a stellar new sound.

Experience Gentle Thunder on grand hammer dulcimer, drums and Native American flutes, as Will holds the pulse on udu, djembe, Taos drums, and drum set, while Amo enthusiastically weaves piano, bass and soprano sax together creating a musical message that is beyond words.
